A Normal Day Is . . .

A normal school day is . . .

Each year I have the opportunity to write something for the yearbook, and the staff knowingly reminds me of the approaching deadline. This deadline always comes as a surprise amidst the often hectic and sometimes unexpected happenings of what we all refer to as a normal school day.

Monday, October 14th was such a day, and I arrived at school at the usual 7:15 a.m. Two of our custodians happened to be absent and the others were unable to unlock the doors for students and staff. The central maintenance personnel office sent a foreman over to unlock the doors. It was the first day of special activities for Spirit Week which precedes the annual Homecoming parade and football game on Saturday afternoon. Many students were dressed in fancy costumes symbolizing whom they would like to be. Other days would feature other special activities — farmer's day, evening old time movies, powder puff football, field day events. All part of a normal day.

Two of our four administrators were away adding somewhat to the intensity of the day's work. There was a parent-student conference early in the morning, telephone calls, several students to see concerning tardiness or absence from classes, the daily lunch room supervision, a quick lunch, and a plunge into the afternoon schedule.

Sometime during the day I wrote up the program for OPEN HOUSE on October 22. I also did some work on the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools annual report, and I wrote this article for yearbook three days ahead of the deadline. At 4:00 p.m. an audio engineer arrived to evaluate much needed repair of the sound system in the auditorium. At 5:00 p.m. I headed for home feeling that much had been accomplished and looking forward to another normal school day tomorrow.

Administrators Cope With Student Issues

The main objective of the administration this year was not only to help students and teachers, but parents as well. "Working together will help solve most of the problems at Harrison," said Mr. Jerry Allison.

Student vandalism, a critical problem at Harrison last year, has proved to be much less of a major issue, as the only real damage was confined to several broken windows. The administrators also have made arrangements for the installation of "speed bumps" in the student parking lot in hopes of preventing future accidents resulting from reckless driving habits.

With the number of day to day problems and unexpected situations decreasing, administrators had more time to deal with the important problems students encountered.

Counselors Set Career Goals

Harrison's counselors encountered social, emotional, educational, and financial problems every day. In general, they served as an information source, but also were responsible for coordinating curriculum and writing college recommendations for interested applicants.

One new policy in the counseling department was enforcement of career goals. Conferences were set up with parents and students to help make decisions on future careers. They also made a booklet for all new students explaining the basic functions of the counseling center.

To further communications within the school, the counselors also included a senior column in their newsletter, Contact 4.

New Courses Improve Science Department

The science department attempted to give students an attitude of inquiry toward the nature of all living things.

Several changes were made in the department, some of which were due to overhead visual aids which played an important part in learning, and the addition of a student teacher, Mr. Bruce Economou under Mr. Larry Fortner. A new course, Conceptual Physics, which was a non-math oriented class was taught by Mr. King. This course put more emphasis on understanding theories and concepts with less emphasis on mathematical formulas.

Biology II added comparative anatomy to their offerings. This class did such things as examining a mink, shark and frog.

The science department also saw an increase in chemistry course enrollment over the previous year.

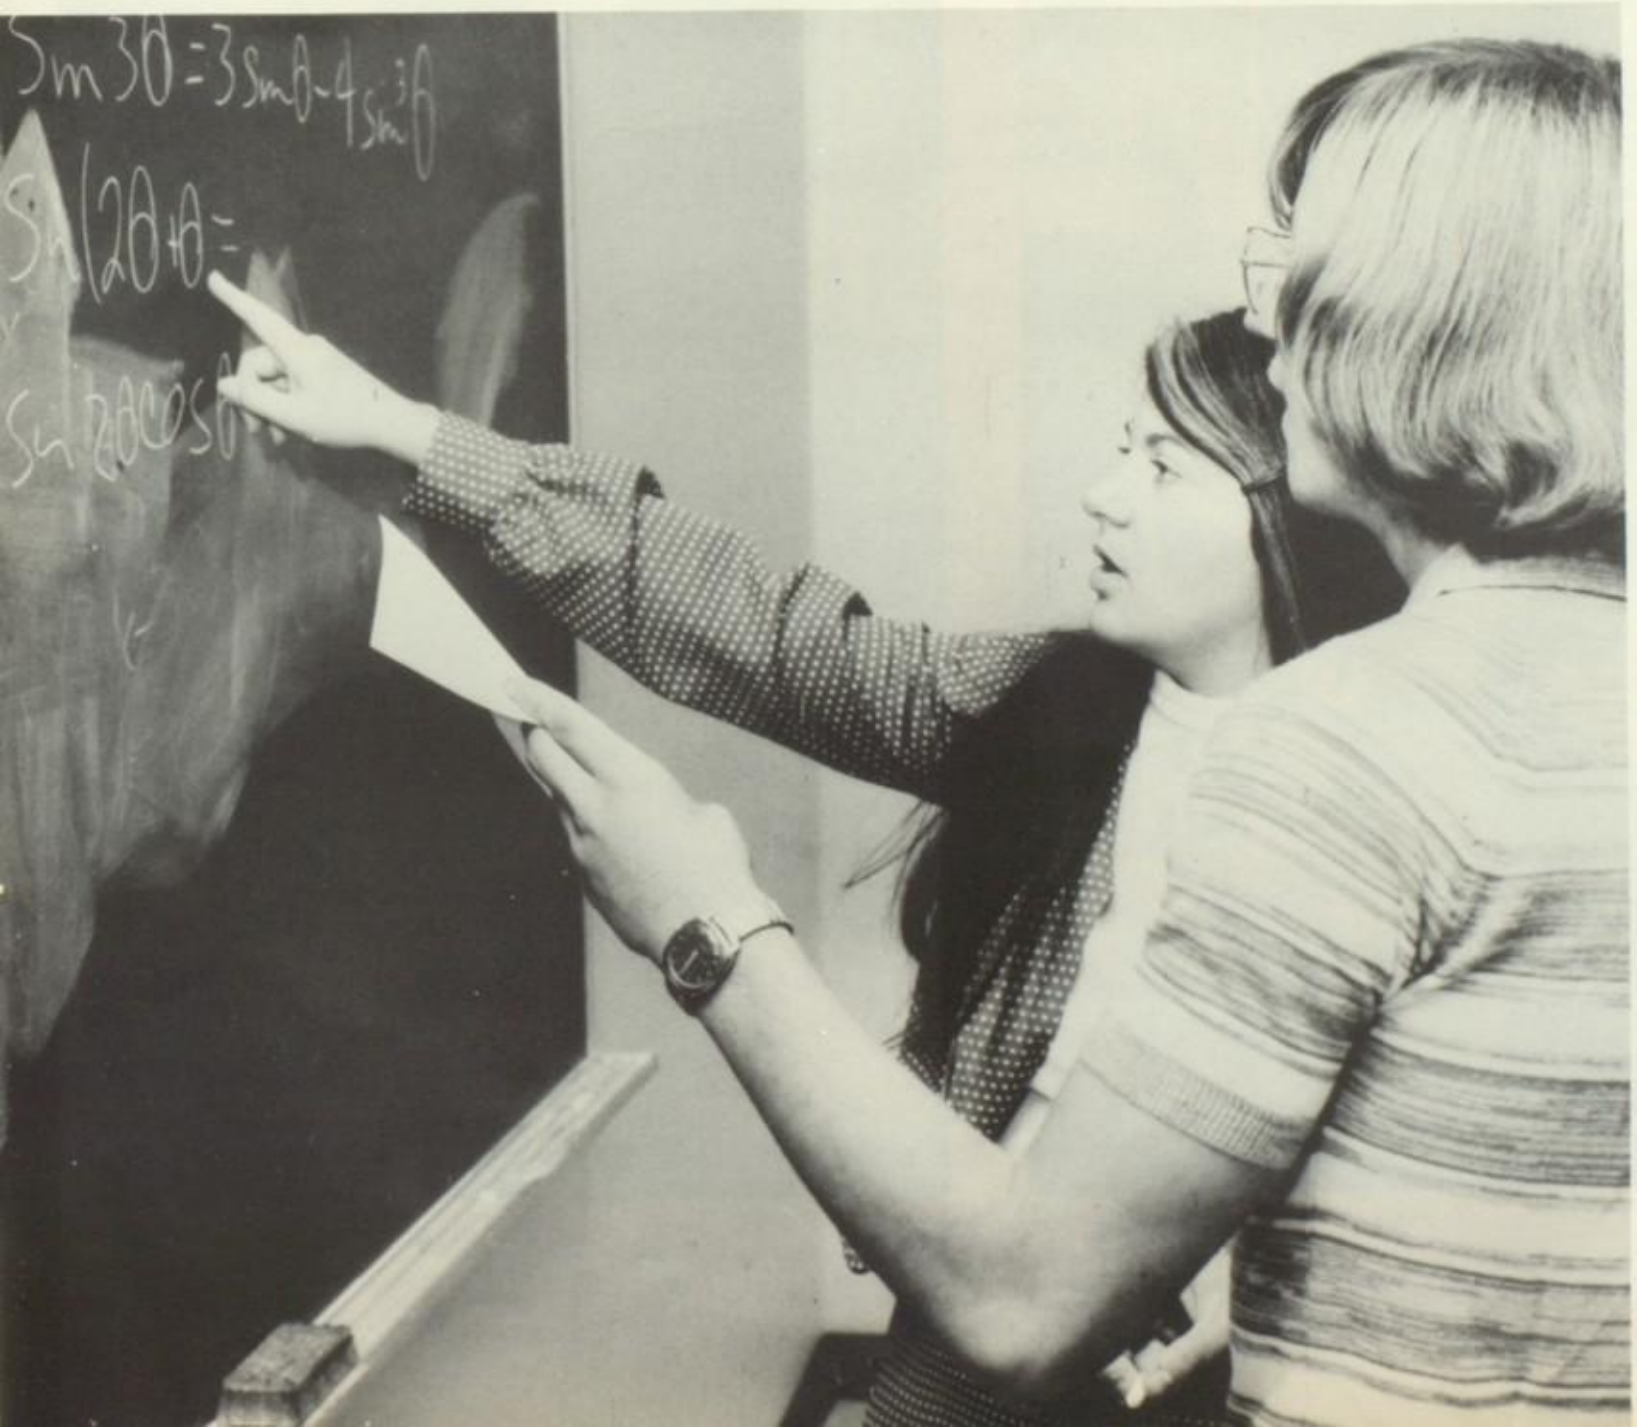
Math Department Sees Increased Enrollment

The math department saw increased enrollment as evidence of an increased student interest in the higher math. According to Miss Louise Lewis, the math department tried to think logically and to reach both college-bound and non-college-bound students through a wide selection of course offerings.

A new course added was Applied Geometry. This course, taught by Mr. Richard Strausz, inclined students to take geometry. It featured geometric theories without mathematical proofs.

Students graduating who took advantage of the Advanced Placement program in their sophomore year had completed a college-level course in Calculus while still in high school. Due to the success of this pilot program, the department plans to continue the advanced placement offerings.



History Won't Repeat Itself?

"One of the main objectives of the Social Studies Department was to give students a better understanding of the past so that we can avoid making the same mistakes in the future," said Mr. Ray Voss.

Two additions were made to the department; Mr. John Lanzetta was back after a year-long absence and Mr. Richard Strausz taught Government as well as math classes. Despite these additions, the department was still basically understaffed and large class size was a problem, as it limited teacher effectiveness.

Several classes were also cut from the curriculum including a "Values Clarification" course which Mr. Jim McKee introduced.

Emphasis was placed on individual research rather than lecture. "The department was attempting to act as facilitators of knowledge rather than as transmitters of knowledge," said Mr. Richard Steele, department chairman.

Future plans for the department include a class that will be team taught by several teachers on a rotating basis.

Teachers Encourage Creative Styles

Harrison's English Department had clearly defined objectives, exposing traditional writer's techniques, giving students an appreciation of them and developing a creative style of their own.

The "Drama" course produced full, one act plays with all-student producers, directors and cast. Mrs. Barbara Dubb felt this would give the students a real taste of the theater.

Not only do English teachers encourage students in reading and writing skills but to develop themselves as individuals. This was expressed in the "Humanities" course where the students learned an appreciation of contemporary cultural works.

The "Essay" and "Journalism" courses played an important role in the life of college-bound and career-oriented students. It taught the students the correct format for term papers and rules for journalism.

A new course was offered this year. "Science Fiction, the Future and Fantasy," taught by Mrs. Mary Brown, was aimed toward the student with a low interest level in English.

Culture Emphasized In Language Studies

"Studying culture is an important part of any language student's studies," said Mrs. Pam Stanizewski, head of the language department.

Stressing culture brought some changes in the foreign language department. With this emphasis on cultural development, the advanced language students participated in independent or group study programs. Using plays, reports and projects, reading novels and researching different aspects of culture, the students displayed what they learned in class.

A new member of the department was Mrs. Maria Schnieder, German teacher. Another addition was Italian II, taught by Mrs. Donna Petrini, for students who completed Italian I.

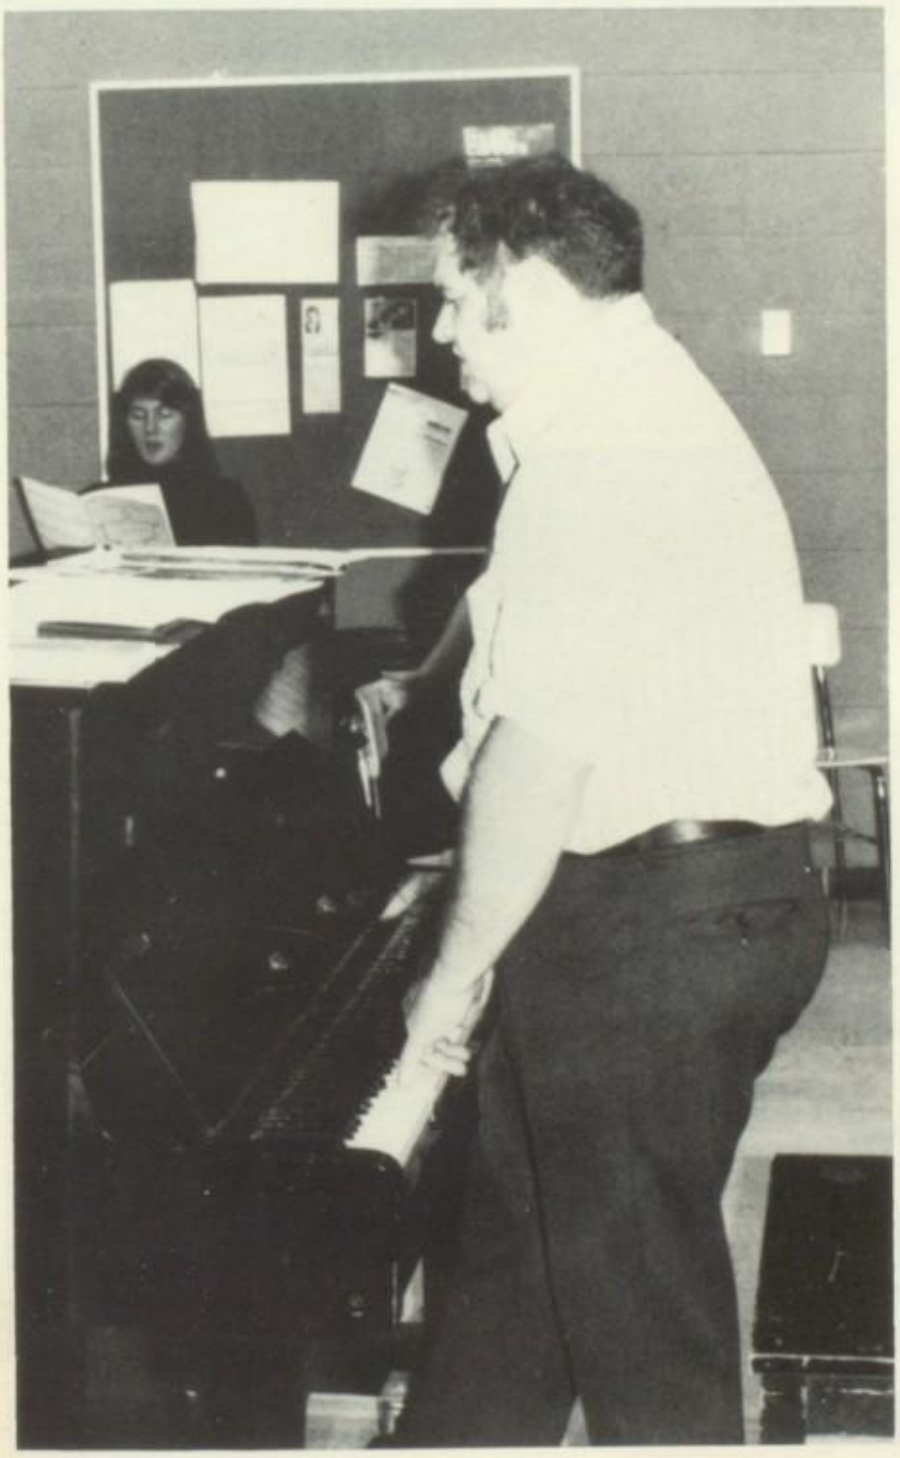
New Art Class Expands Skills

The Art Department saw changes in the past year with the departure of Mrs. Horwitz and the addition of a new class in commercial art and design. This class was taught by Mr. Swyston of the drafting department and introduced commercial art aspects such as lettering and package design. Mr. Bill Harmon, department head, hoped this class would give students a useful, marketable skill.

Both Mr. Harmon and Miss Grace Campbell were pleased with the past year's accomplishments in all areas despite many material shortages. The annual art show was another success, providing an opportunity for many art students to display their work.

One regret was that more classes could not be offered, particularly in metals and ceramics. Mr. Harmon felt this problem could be alleviated by the addition of another art teacher.



Music; A Part Of Everyone's Life

Though no new courses were added, the music department's growth continued. Concert Band doubled in size, due mainly to sophomores recruited from junior high schools.

For the second year Harrison has had a full time vocal director. Through the work of Mr. Maurice Wildt, all choirs expanded and improved.

In addition to teaching vocal music, Mr. Wildt taught classes in music appreciation and theory.

Mr. Wildt, and Mr. Paul Barber, instrumental music teacher, agreed that the main purpose of the music department was to increase awareness of music among students. They wished to see music become a part of everyone's life, on both performance and listening levels.

Home Ec: Preparing For The Future

Harrison's Home Economics Department stressed the importance of being able to cope with the problems of everyday life. In addition to basic home economics, clothing, and foods, courses were designed to include the practical aspects of daily life such as "Family Sociology" and "Problems In Independent Living." These classes covered topics ranging from family and social relationships to the importance of a checking account, how to fill out tax returns, wills and insurance policies, and how to budget.

Due to financial difficulties within the department, several classes were cut from the curriculum including a new course entitled "Social Relations" which was an introductory sociology class designed for sophomores. The department hopes to include these courses in next year's program.

Ind. Art Stresses Career Training

The main objectives of the Industrial Arts Department were to introduce the students to fields that possibly could become careers, and in the case of vocational training, to provide students with a saleable skill. A move toward career education with two new courses offered was Career Metals, taught by Mr. Donald Batten and Career Drafting taught by Mr. Harry Swystun.

Though fewer materials were available, there were increased objectives in the vocational auto and electronics areas. With the purchase of a new brake lathe machine, the auto shop was able to provide complete brake servicing.

Department Chairman William Pratt said, "We are continuing to offer relevant course material by maintaining up-to-date equipment and instructor knowledge. All the teachers in our department are in some way involved in the educational process outside the classroom and this helps maintain our rapport with the students and other educators."

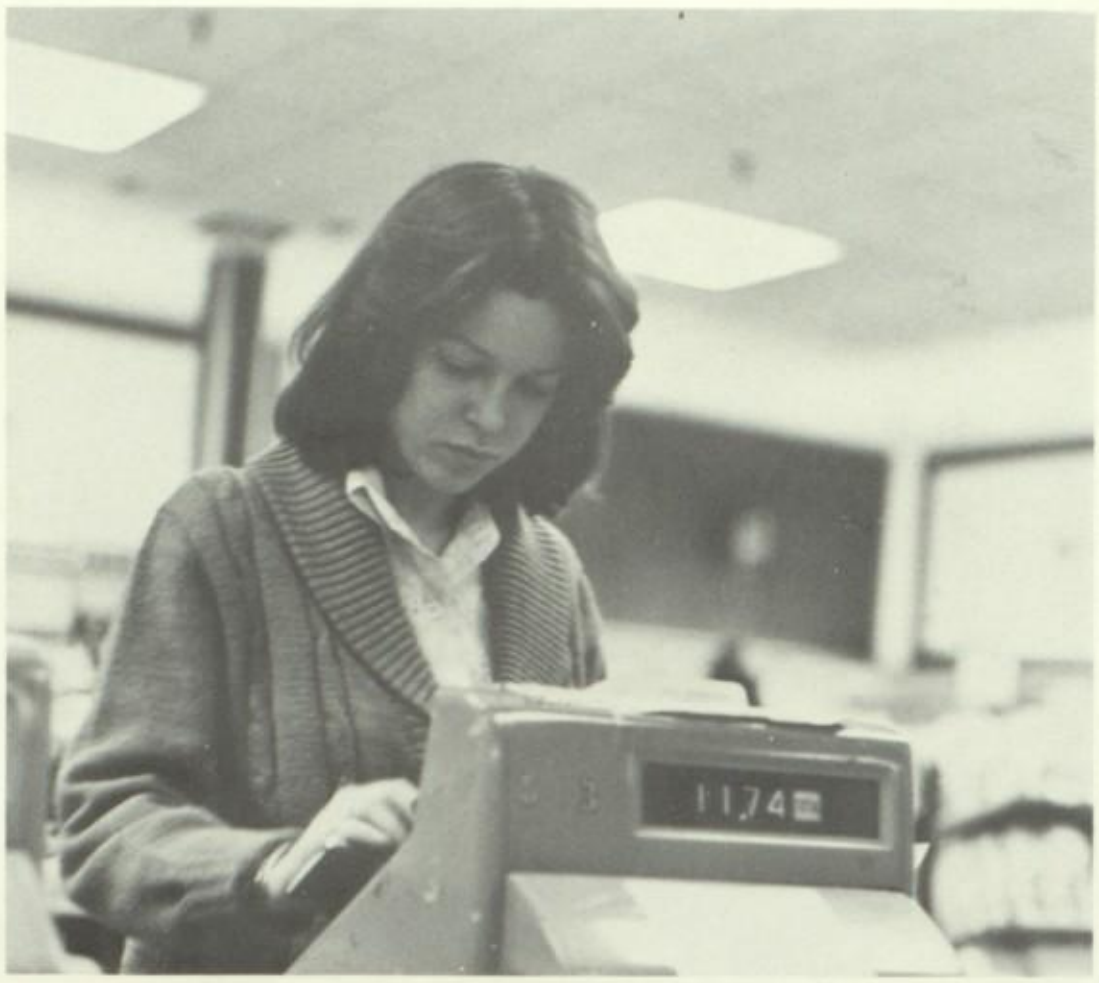
Business Ed Changes With Society

Business education does more than simply prepare students for college or a career. It gives concepts on the home, consumerism and security in the outside world.

The Business Department added two new teachers this year. Mr. James Tavernit, who taught Distributive Education made many changes including the name "Emporium" replacing "Karma" for the school store.

Mrs. Cynthia LaRose taught Office Preparation, which dealt with typing, filing and general clerical work, and also coordinated students for jobs through the Co-op center.

A new course, Business Machines, taught by Mrs. Lindquist, included the operations of calculators, adding machines and the practical applications of all business machines.



Co-Op Students Gain Working Experience

The Co-op Department continued to provide valuable job opportunities for Harrison students. The program allowed students to earn school credit while getting first-hand experience in the business world.

Mr. Robert Finzel worked full time placing students with secretarial skills. Mrs. Kilwin worked with students interested in retailing and sales. This is the first year the secretarial program was co-ordinated on a full time basis at Harrison

Occupational Skills Grow At Voc. School

The students who attended the Walled Lake Vocational School received training which prepared them for their chosen classes. The classes met for three hours a day with a new extended day program offered in the afternoon. Busses provided transportation for all vocational students.

Among the courses offered were Dental and Medical Office Assistants, Floral Arrangement, Design Landscaping, Data Processing and Food Service.

All the classes were taught by a highly competent and specialized staff to provide students with a complete education in the field of their interest.

Phys. Ed. Dept. Offers Many New Challenges

Harrison's physical education department offered many challenges for students this year. An example would be periodic tests of students for varying levels of fitness and adjustment of the program to fit individual needs. Additional courses also were offered, such as archery for girls.

Other significant changes were made by the department, such as the use of swim helpers to work with groups of girls on a one-to-one basis. It was hoped this would aid girls in overcoming fear of water.

An addition to the staff was Ms. Beverly Bain, who came to Harrison from Farmington High School.

Divided Program Proves Successful

The Special Education department added a new teacher, Mr. Peter Solar, and a teacher's aid, Mrs. Joyce Chappelle.

The year's program was divided with each teacher taking 15 students. Mr. Solar and Mrs. Chappelle worked in the Northeast tower tutoring and helping the students to better themselves in their regular classes.

Mrs. Claire Albertson and Mrs. Kitty Wheelock occupied the Southwest tower and worked with the other students.

The teachers also acted as counselors for students who had particular problems. "With the program divided in half, we were able to devote more time to the individual students," said Mrs. Albertson.

Student Council Surveys Opinions

Harrison's Student Council remained active throughout the school year, speaking out about issues involving the student body at H.H.S. These included the installation of speed bumps, control of smoking, the six-period day and the initiation of a National Honor Society at Harrison. The Council also conducted an opinion poll on the above subjects, with the results printed in the Catalyst. They also sponsored a talent show in February.

The Council met periodically with Mr. David Poelke advising. Doug Ellman, '74 grad and past vice-president, summed up the Student Council. "They try to reflect the views of the entire student body."

Class Boards Host Many Activities

Despite limited funds, the class boards planned a variety of activities for Harrison students.

The Sophomore Board had bake sales, sponsored "Famous Person Day" during Homecoming, and had a sleigh ride which was a joint activity with the Junior Board.

Junior Board sponsored a stag and drag dance, Farmer Day during Homecoming Week and sold a variety of refreshments at football games to help raise money for their class. Preceding Thanksgiving, it published the infamous "Turkey Droppings," and later, before winter vacation, sold carnations. It was advised by Ms. Jill Turley.

The Senior Board had a successful roller skating party at Northland Roller Rink and during Homecoming Week sponsored the Homecoming Dance and a night of old-time comedy movies.

Catalyst Aims For Increased Coverage

Put 16 student journalists together, let them discuss, argue, make decisions and you have the answer to why Harrison's newspaper is called THE CATALYST (a catalyst is something that causes a reaction).

THE CATALYST staff aimed for increased student involvement through enlarged coverage. Attempting to maintain itself like a professional publication, THE CATALYST staff sought revenue through advertising, which in turn, allowed for the publication of larger issues.

With the help of Editor Djuli Mingo and Adviser, Ms. Cindy Kallas, THE CATALYST once again had a successful year.

Aquilla Expands Creative Horizons

The art of creating was inspiration for this year's Aquilla staff. Mrs. Rosbolt, Aquilla's adviser, encouraged the group to expand the magazine into the areas of creative artwork and musical compositions. This innovation was successful on transforming Aquilla into a creative, literary magazine. The large staff, composed of writers who have had work previously or recently published in Aquilla, edited diligently and with a sense of humor.

Competition is a good test for a blossoming writer. The Aquilla Contest furthered this philosophy by sponsoring a contest from October to December in which students were paid for prize-winning short stories, peoms, essays and plays.

"Play It Again Sam:" A Search For Reality

Harrison's drama department achieved success in its spring production of a contemporary comedy, "Play It Again Sam." Through the efforts of director Lee M. Ross, production assistants Fran Victor and Rachelle Ballmer and stage manager Pat Styles, a thoroughly enjoyable and artistic play was created. Faculty adviser, Mrs. Barbara Dubb, was pleased with the results. "The play surpassed my expectations and proved how many talented and hardworking students we have at Harrison."

November 22-23, Harrison's first major production of this year, "David and Lisa," was presented. Under the direction of Mrs. Dubb, co-production assistants Fran Victor and Clair Tully and stage manager Ken Smith, the play was highly successful.

To further inspire students interested in drama-centered activities at H.H.S., there also was the Thespian Society. The society's activities included a yearly initiation banquet, a series of one-act plays, and also several trips to the Fisher and Meadowbrook Theaters.

Spirit Grows During Homecoming Week

October 14-19 marked one of the most exciting times of the year for Harrison High School.

Costume Day, sponsored by the sophomores introduced Homecoming Week. The student whose costume was judged best was awarded $15 and a second prize of a Retrospect '75 went to the second-place costume. Following this on Tuesday were Laurel and Hardy old time movies for a fee of 10¢.

The annual Junior vs. Senior powderpuff game, which was a victory for the Juniors, took place on Wednesday. Overalls, plaid shirts, straw hats and other farmer's attire for Farmer's Day dominated the halls on Thursday.

Friday featured Field Day with three-legged races, an eggtoss, tug-of-war, relays and sack races.

These activities led to the main events of Homecoming: the Parade of Floats, the football game and the Homecoming Dance. Beginning at 1 p.m. Saturday, the parade featured class and other group floats, with the sophomores "Smokey the Bear" winning first place.

Three thousand fans were on hand for Harrison's grid battle with Churchill. The crowd went wild with the final score 37-0.

HARRISON

Band Department Forms New Groups

"Active" is the word to describe Mr. Paul Barber and the band department. First came football games and Marching Band; with Pep Band playing; and Orchestra met each day and performed at various concerts.

One change made in the department was dividing Stage Band into two separate bands. The two new bands were Jazz Band and Lab Band.

Band members of the three Farmington High Schools combined for one weekend to raise money. In just two days the bands raised $7,800 which was divided between the three bands. The money was used for scholarships, band camp activities and uniforms.

Varied Styles Give Musical Experience

Harrison's Vocal Music Department continued to build on foundations set by Mr. Maurice Wildt. Harrison hosted several school concerts including one involving all area junior and senior highs. December was especially busy, with the choir singing for the Farmington Community Center, Baptist Manor, Kiwanis Club and caroling through Harrison's halls.

An increase of male voices this year benefited both Men's Glee Club, which doubled in size, and Concert Choir, giving them a balanced sound.

During the year, Mr. Maurice Wildt introduced many varied styles of music to his students. "I feel giving students a variety of different styles of music gives them more background and therefore they get more out of music."

Chess Is More Than Just A Game

The battle of wits known as chess is more than just a game. As Adviser Mr. Strausz puts it, chess is an "intellectual challenge." Tuesday afternoons set the scene of clashing intellects as members of the Harrison High Chess Club contemplated the checkered board in preparation for upcoming tournaments.

Though the club was defeated by North Farmington, they made a comeback as they placed second in the Fourth Annual Michigan High School Tournament. Along with giving the chess club members a chance to play chess, the competitions with other schools gave them a chance to experience chess as a sport of the mind as well.

Frankenmuth Trip

Tops Year's Activities

This year, the German Club, sponsored by Mrs. Maria Schneider, was involved in a variety of activities. They went roller skating in September and built a float for Homecoming. On Sweetest Day, they sold carnations in order to finance a trip to Frankenmuth.

Although there were no requirements for membership, all 65 members were German students. For an initiation, the new students had to wear colorful paper hats all day in school. That night, there was a potluck dinner where the older students cooked traditional German food.

Due to increased involvement in the Exchange Club, Spanish and French clubs were discontinued.

Exchange Students Discover New Ways

Adjusting to life in a foreign country is an exciting experience for any foreign exchange student.

Meeting every Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Miriam Hall and Mrs. Pam Staniszewski, this year's Foreign Exchange Club helped Harrison's students from Sweden, Germany, Israel, Baghdad and South America meet this challenge.

On a rotating chairmanship basis, fresh, new ideas were utilized by the club. The Turkey Raffle, a monetary success, helped finance a visit to a Detroit television station, and a tour of the Velvet Peanut Butter factory. Whether they rode in the flowered Homecoming car or had a birthday party at the home of one of the sponsors, the exchange club members gleaned a broader view of life in Detroit and Farmington Hills.

Student Managers Share Work Load

Acccrding to Mr. James Tavernit, store adviser, The Emporium, Harrison's school store is "a workshop that gives students experience in management, buying and handling money." It's a valuable part of the "Retailing course" where students learn to relate to each other in a business situation.

Student managers were appointed and generally responsible for purchasing and merchandising as well as day-to-day store operations.

Varsity Team Shows Marked Improvement

The 1974 season for the Varsity Baseball Team was a successful one. This year's won-lost record was greatly improved over the 1973 season with a standing of 6-14 compared to 1 and 12.

Coach John Herrington gave awards to Tim Hammer (1974 graduate) the team's most valuable player, Jim Seitz, outstanding offensive player and Steve Morrison, outstanding defensive player. Paul Rogind, Sam Pink, Steve Morrison and Jim Seitz were awarded honorable mentions. Gordon Hargreaves was this year's team captain.

Coach Herrington has a very bright outlook for next year's season with the returning players to the team. He stated, "We have experience at every position next season. However, we must find adequate pitching if we are going to have success."

J.V. Breaks Even Under New Coach

The 1974 J.V. Baseball Team had a new coach, Mr. William Pratt. With total effort, the team broke even with a record of 6-6.

Coach Pratt gave the most valuable player award to Kyle Krupsky and Kevin Veiner. Most improved player award went to Kerry Welborn. Kyle Krupsky held the highest batting average at .410 with thirty-nine at bats.

The highest point of the season came when Harrison beat Farmington, even though Farmington won the league title.

"The J.V. team learned a lot about the responsibilities and self-discipline of players on a team sport in their preparation for varsity competition," said Coach Pratt.

Young Track Team Breaks Records

Last year's track team was coached by Mr. Larry Fortner and Mr. Chris Brown, who brought a young and enthusiastic team together. In spite of their handicap the team held a better record than the 1973 season, with a 2-6 standing.

Special recognition was given to Steve Arcangeli who earned most valuable player by having the most points. Ian Goldbaum received most improved player, while Tim Turney and Mike Perrone were awarded for their fine jobs as captains.

There were many records broken last year: Rick Hrutkay broke the pole vault with 10′6″, Ian Goldbaum broke the 220 record with 23.4, Tim Turney took the shot-put with 47′3″, Dave Thorne broke the long jump with 20′4″ and the 440 relay and 880 relay were broken with 46.4 and 1:34. The high jump record of 6′ was successfully tied by sophomore Greg White.

When Coach Fortner was asked what the outlooks were for this year's team he commented, "We should have a stronger team with a good group coming back, with some sprinters from the junior highs."

Tennis Team Makes Fine Showing

Harrison High School's tennis team, coached by Mr. Dennis King, had a very successful season. They ended in 3rd place with 8 wins and only 3 losses.

David Hayes, team captain, placed 1st in the league meet with juniors John VanVleck and Louis Corey making "All Conference." Jeff Klein also finished with a strong showing in the conference meet.

Due to the millage cut backs, Harrison was unable to finance a 1974-75 team.

Girl's Track Club

1st In HHS's History

For the first time in Harrison's history, there was a girl's track club. It consisted of thirteen girls who earned varsity letters: Linda Arcangeli, Donna Doll, Cheryl Fletcher, Claudia Kalmey, Nancy Karastas, Vickie Kimler, Karen Loughlin, Lori Lucas, Karen Passiak, Gail Potrykus, Veronica Draumer, and Barb Hennesy.

The club standing was 2-4. It was coached by Sue McLalin, Frank Arcangeli, and Mr. Larry Fortner.

"It was nice smelling perfume for once, instead of perspiration odor," said Mr. Fortner.

Veteran Team Enjoys Successful Season

Harrison's 1974 girl's softball team enjoyed a highly successful season finishing third in the league with a final record of 6-5. Coached by Ms. Sondra Rivers, the team consisted mainly of "softball veterans."

"This year's team was the strongest all-around group we've had so far, as it was dominated by players with two to three years of experience," commented Coach Rivers.

A system of rotating senior captains was used last season which allowed several team members to test their own leadership potentials.

Awards were given to team members, Dana Pink, most valuable player; Cathy Bergman, highest batting average; and Donna Hebel, who received "All Conference Catcher" awards. Joanne Economou was also honored as an "All Conference Outfielder."

Varsity Team: Best In H.H.S. History

The 1974 Varsity Football Team proved to be the best ever in Harrison's history. Led by Co-Captains Sam Pink and Dave Thorne and Chaplain Bob Miller, The Hawks ended the season with a record of 8-1, and placed tenth in the state.

Many individual awards were given out to members of the team. Karl Braun, Craig Valassis, Sam Pink, Dave Thorne, Paul Rogind, Steve Moravec, Wally Kurzeja, and Bob Miller made All Conference. Honorable mentions were given to Kevin Norton, Tim Harsha, Chuck Yarber and Drew Homovec. For the first time in the school's history, Harrison placed in All State Competition. Sam Pink made first team quarterback and Paul Rogind made second team kicker.

A key factor in the success of the Hawks, was the superb coaching of Head Coach John Herrington and Assistant Coaches Bob Sutter and Bob Sallow. Through the effort of these three men, the Hawks were drawn together into a tightly-knit team.

This closeness among teammates was another factor in the overall success of the Harrison "Green Machine." Despite the fact that many individual awards were given out, "success was achieved through total team effort," said All State Quarterback, Sam Pink.

Enthusiastic Team Makes Fine Showing

Harrison's "Roadrunners," under the direction of Coach Larry Fortner, finished the season with a dual meet record of 1-6. They placed last in the Western Six League.

Captain Elder Herrman and Sophomore Adam Weiner were the top two performers accumulating the most points. Mike Redford broke the school record at Cass Benton with a time of 17:14.5. The previous record was 17:20.

Despite the apparent poor season, Coach Fortner was very satisfied with the team's performance as many running times were improved. Also, many good runners were sophomores who ran against seniors with three years experience. There were no returning team members from last year.

The Coach is very optimistic about next year as he hopes that most of the team will return. "We had a great group of guys who ran hard." He added, "We have a chance to win the league meet next year."

Girl's Tennis: HHS's 1st Undefeated Team

According to Coach Bernard Goldstein, the Girl's Tennis Team excelled itself this past year. The team was undefeated at dual matches and won the "Western Six" Championship for the first time, with a record of nine wins and zero losses.

Individual awards were given to Denise Moehlman for League Singles Championship and Hildy Randolf and Linda Kovan as League Doubles Champs.

The season ended with Harrison finishing first in the final league standings. "We had an excellent season and are looking forward to an excellent season next year," said Coach Goldstein.

New Coach Leads Team To A Winning Season

The girl's swim team, coached by Mrs. Barbara Bain, the new swimming teacher, completed a fine season with a 4-4 season.

Co-captain Kim McEachin was chosen most valuable player, with Carolyn Such, Linda Lahey, Karen McEachin receiving All-League awards for the 400 yd. freestyle relay.

Karen Rudel set a varsity record for the 100 yd. backstroke with 1:12.3. Marcy Warheit lowered her 500 yd. freestyle time by 18 seconds in league meets. Karen Kenndey went on to state regional diving events from her fine performances in league meets.

Boy's Swim Finishes With 8-0 Record

Harrison's Boy's Swim Team completed its season successfully, with an 8-0 dual meet record. Steve Schoff set a record for the 100 yard butterfly, which was previously held by '74 graduate Mike Rado.

According to Coach Mark Holdridge, "This year's team was a little inexperienced, but accepted the challenge of previous swimming teams. We have never had a losing season, including this year, and we might have our best team ever next year."

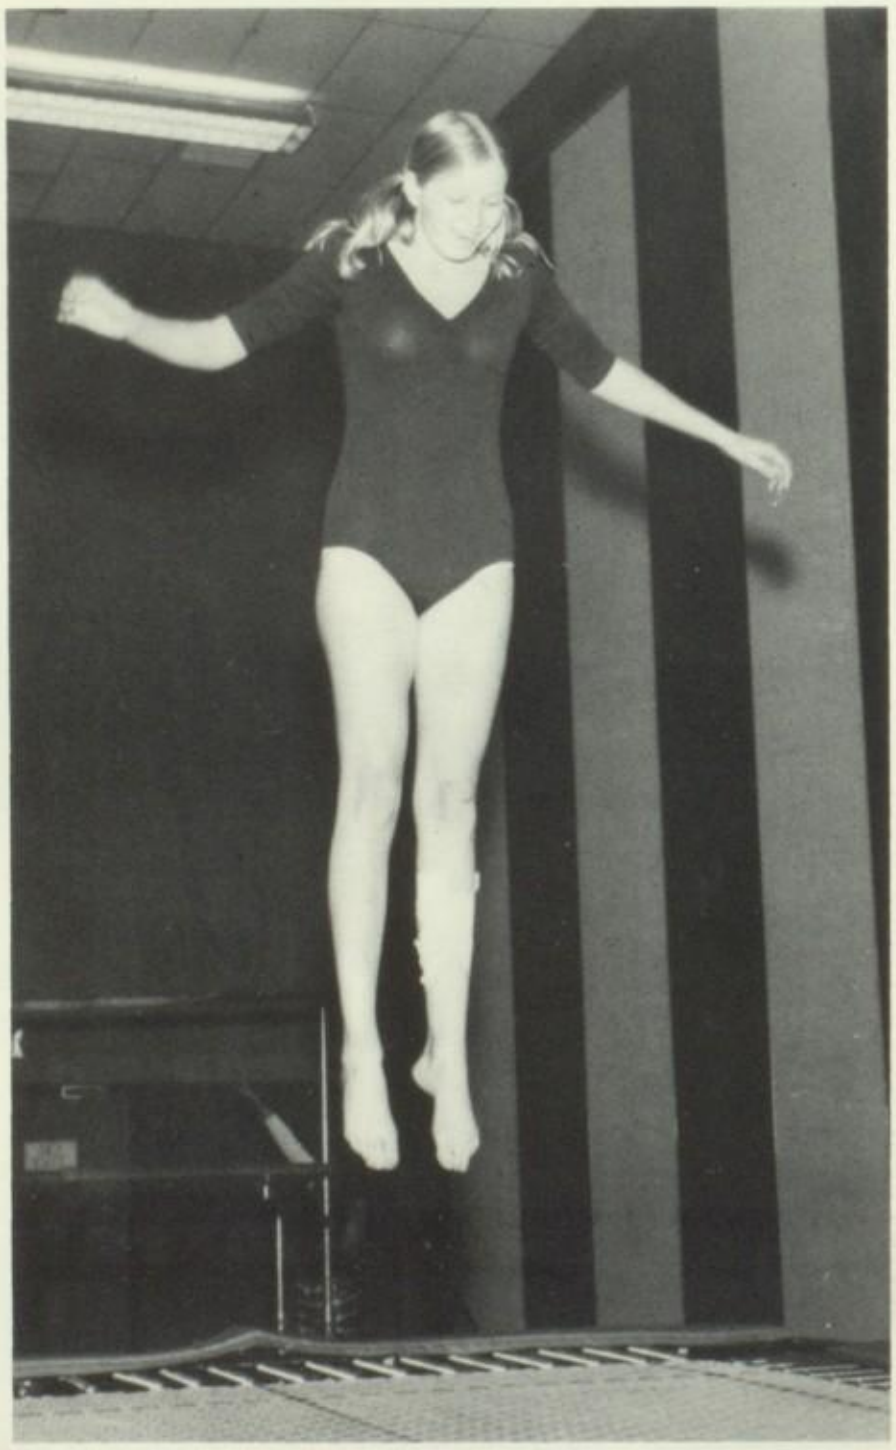
Unusual, Young Team Proves Promising

Harrison's Wrestling Team finished its season with a 7-4-2 record.

Coach Bill Pratt felt an important aspect of the 74-75 was its outstanding, young wrestlers. "Even though we're loosing one senior, if everybody returns next year who is eligible, it will be the best wrestling team Harrison has ever had," said Coach Pratt.

Al Crudele was chosen the season's Most Valuable Player, in addition to placing second in the Redford Union Tournament and the League Meet. Three other wrestlers also took seconds in the League Meet: Brian Kigar, Kerry Welborn, and Bill Blackmer.



Skill, Poise Give Power To Gymnasts

Harrison's gymnastic team completed its 1974-75 season with a 4-5 record winning its final dual meets.

For the second year in a row, Captain Kim Bernia broke the team record for points scored in a total season.

The team had several members qualify for the State Meet: Kim Bernia, floor exercises and tumbling; Shawn Kelel, tumbling; Barb Stoddard, floor exercise; Lori Spoutz, tumbling.

"We were up against the stiffest competition ever but I felt we had a good chance; these girls were good!" commented Coach Sondra Rivers.

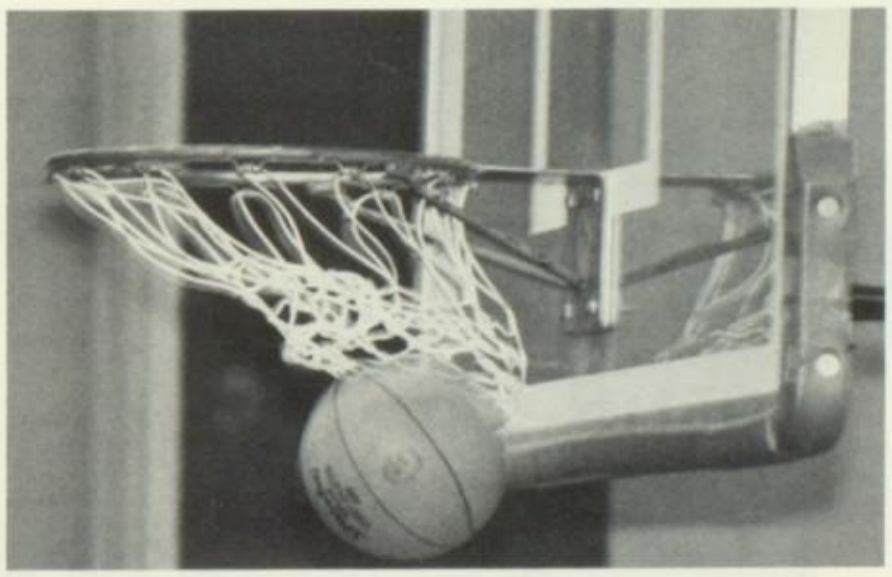
Hamper B-Ball Team

The 1974-75 Varsity Basketball Team ended its season with a 7-10 record finishing third in the league. Unlike the previous season, in which rotating team captains were used, two teammates, Paul Wick and Mike Styles led the Hawks.

According to Coach Robert Sutter, the season's Most Valuable Player was Senior, Bob Mason. Mason also received All-League recognition and set a new Harrison game rebound record of 24 points against Walled Lake Western. The previous record was held by Jeff Sieloff with 21 points.

All-League Honorable Mentions also were awarded to juniors Mark Brozek and Mike Styles.



Ambition Sparks J.V. Into Fine Season

The J.V. Basketball Team was the best in Harrison's history according to Coach Neil Redford. "The team won more games this year than in the last three years combined," he said. The Most Valuable Players were Bryan Gilbert, Larry Pump and Greg Mathiak. Pump was high scorer with a total of 254 points. Captains were chosen for each game.

Overall, the team won 8 games and lost 8. In the league standings, they won 5 and lost 4.

Coach Redford said ". . . the young men on the team were great team players and consistently worked hard in practice whether they were starters or last minute performers."

Wrestlerettes Work Hard At Meets

The Wrestlerette Club consisted of fifteen girls working for the wrestling season. As the season progressed, the club was on the go making posters and selling candy at all home meets.

"These activities supplied the money to provide a banquet at the end of the season," said Linda Arcangelli, club president.

Club meetings were held every Tuesday after school, with officers Linda Arcangelli, president; Donna Doll, vice-president; and Mrs. Rita Crudele, sponsor; officiating.

Mrs. Schultz,

The A.P. guinea pigs recognize tribulation.
And for it, wish to offer their appreciation.
With patience you taught us, solutions, equations.
But why did we have to derive integrations?

Stone. A single unit. One.
Enduring fire and ice.
Rounded by time's hand.
Supported by three legs,
Thin but balanced.
A geology lesson? No.
Self-proclamation.
